Equity Scholarship

Who can apply?

This scholarship is open to new and continuing students.

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- Be an applicant for a position in the Master of Arts Screen: Business (2025 mid year intake)
- Be enrolled in the Master of Arts Screen: Business or the Graduate Diploma of Radio and Podcasting, the Bachelor of Arts: Screen or the Master of Arts Screen
- Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident or a New Zealand citizen
- Be experiencing financial need as described in this information sheet

Purpose

AFTRS Equity Scholarships are provided by the Kenneth Myer Fellowship Trust and are awarded twice a year to assist students, experiencing exceptional, real and enduring financial need, with the costs associated with higher education.

The scholarships are intended to support people from low socio-economic backgrounds or who are otherwise under-represented in higher education to study at AFTRS.

Application form

Scholarships will only be awarded to those who have been offered a course place or are a continuing student, so it is important that you apply for the course as well as apply for the scholarship.

Complete the online scholarship application form and provide any documentation requested by the closing date.

All applications will be treated confidentially.

Application dates

Applications open 14 March 2025 and close 10 June 2025.

Dates are subject to change. Please check AFTRS website for updates.

Conditions

The successful applicant must have accepted an offer in or be a continuing student in the Master of Arts Screen, Master of Arts Screen: Business, Bachelor of Arts Screen: Production or the Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting.

There are limited funds for scholarships so AFTRS may not be able to support everyone who applies or who demonstrates they are in need.

The Recipient cannot defer the commencement of the scholarship.

You will be notified by email whether your application is successful.

Application task

Submit a personal statement (max. 5000 characters) that describes your socio-economic circumstances that may affect your education and the opportunity the scholarship would give you.

Demonstrating need

You must demonstrate financial need or other barriers to study. Ways of doing this include:

- Provide information demonstrating exceptional, real and enduring financial need using the Financial Information fields and supporting documentation, such as bank statements and/or other financial documents.
- You may have been in receipt of Centrelink payments previously which you can note on the financial form provided.

- You may demonstrate other barriers to accessing education, such as one or more of the following:
 - Carer responsibilities;
 - sole parent responsibilities;
 - long-term medical condition/disability or ongoing effects of abuse;
 - English language difficulty;
 - a visa holder under Australia's humanitarian visa program; or
 - you may reside in a regional or remote location.
- You should provide documentation that attests to your need in the relevant area.

What we're looking for

AFTRS will determine which, if any, applicant will be awarded the scholarship.

If the selection panel finds that no applicant meets the eligibility criteria, the scholarship will not be awarded.

AFTRS' decision is final and no correspondence about decisions will be entered into.

Other information

If you are unsuccessful in Semester 2, 2025, you may reapply for any AFTRS' Equity Scholarship in the future. You would then need to meet all scholarship eligibility and criteria at that time.

If you are successful, you may also reapply for an AFTRS Equity Scholarship in subsequent rounds, so long as you meet the eligibility and criteria at that time. A new application, with new supporting documents, would need to be submitted.

Further information

Payments

AFTRS Equity Scholarship funds are provided by The Kenneth Myer Fellowship Trust and the AFTRS Executive Hardship Fund.

- Master of Arts Screen: Each scholarship is valued up to $6,250 (based on enrolment in 4 subjects)
- Master of Arts Screen: Business: Each scholarship is valued up to $4500 (based on enrolment in 4 subjects)
- Bachelor of Arts Screen: Production: Each scholarship is valued up to $2,500 (based on enrolment in 4 subjects)
- Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting: Each scholarship is valued up to $2,500 (based on enrolment in 4 subjects)

Payments will be made pro rata according to study load and following the applicable census date. Each scholarship is for one semester only.

In exceptional circumstances, higher financial support may be given.

Payments are conditional on the recipient remaining enrolled, in good academic standing, and continuing to meet the eligibility criteria, and maintain the standards set out in the Student Handbook and AFTRS Code of Conduct.

Certification of documents

Any documents you provide as support material must be certified copies. AFTRS' certification requirements are available at:

www.aftrs.edu.au/students/future-students/how-to-apply/

Translation of documents

If supporting documents are not in English, applicants are required to supply certified copies of the following:

- The document in the original language; and
- An English translation of the document by an accredited translator. Do not send original supporting documents.

Additional information - notes on submission of materials

- Do not exceed the total maximum character count – additional materials will not be reviewed.
- You do not have to complete your application in one sitting. Save your application and log back in at any time prior to the closing date to pick up where you left off.
- File names should be clear and descriptive and only include alphanumeric characters (not symbols).
- Do not include your contact details in any documents.
- You are not permitted to submit any work that has been created in part or whole by a generative AI tool such as ChatGPT and claim it as your own. If you are using any work that is not yours it must be referenced – this is essential to ethical creative practice and academic integrity. Failure to reference is also considered plagiarism.
