Further Information

Certified Copies

A certified copy of an original document is one that has been verified as a true copy by an authorised person.

AFTRS can only consider certified copies as evidence that you have met the admission requirements of the course. This includes your highest educational qualification and your birth certificate or passport.

HOW TO HAVE A DOCUMENT CERTIFIED

To have a document certified you should take the original to an authorised person. The person must personally copy the original document and verify it by writing or stamping on every page of the copy:

"I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original."

The certifier should provide their full name, signature, date, registration number (if any) and their designation, for example, "Justice of the Peace" on every certified copy.

WHO IS AUTHORISED TO CERTIFY A DOCUMENT?

Authorised persons include:

- An AFTRS Student Centre staff member
- A Justice of the Peace with a registration number. Copies verified by Justice of the Peace without a registration number will not be accepted.
- An accountant - members of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, or the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants, or the National Institute of Accountants, or the Association of Taxation and Management Accountants or Registered Tax Agents
- A member of the police force with the rank of sergeant or above
- A barrister, solicitor or patent attorney
- A principal of an Australian secondary college, high school or primary school
- A bank or credit union manager
- A post office manager, or
- A commissioner for declarations.

Uploading Media Files

You will be able to upload your media file/s and associated documents when you apply for the course.

You do not have to complete your application in one sitting. Save your application and log back in at any time prior to the closing date to pick up where you left off.

When uploading application tasks that are media/ video files, be patient as this can take some time.

If you have problems with uploading your media files you may need to compress them. The following provides guidance on how to do this.

TRANSCODING YOUR FILE

You'll be able to select the settings below when exporting your file from the video editor of your choice (e.g. Adobe Premiere Pro, Apple Final Cut or iMovie, DaVinci Resolve).

- Video Codec: H.264
- Recommended video format: MP4 or MOV
- Audio Codec: AAC
- Channels: Stereo
- Rate: 48 khz
- Bitrate: 128 kbps
- File size: Maximum 3 GB.

You can also transcode your file with free video transcoding software Handbrake, downloadable here handbrake.fr/downloads.php

TRANSCODING USING HANDBRAKE

1. Select 'Source' and select your file.
2. Under the 'Summary' tab, set your format to MP4.
3. Under the 'Video' tab
 - a. Set 'Video Encoder' to H.264
 - b. Set 'Framerate' to the framerate of your source file.
 - c. Set Quality to RF 15 – 28
 - d. Under the 'Audio' tab, set the 'Samplerate' to 48 and 'Bitrate' to 128
4. Select 'Start' to begin the transcoding process.

The Use of Generative AI Tools In Your Submission

The rapid rise of generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools, including platforms such as ChatGPT, Descript, DALL-E and MidJourney, have strong benefits that can enable learning and creativity. They can also be used in ways that bypass the ability to assess an individual's specific creative, craft and communication skills, which are essential in determining if you are eligible for a program.

Applicants are not permitted to submit any work that is created in part or whole by a generative AI tool such as ChatGPT and claim it as your own.

We do recognise that AI can be used for as a prompt for research and referencing but not as a substitute for your own original work

If you are using any work that is not your own, it must be acknowledged – this is essential in ethical creative practice and academic integrity.

If you have concerns or questions about the use of generative AI tools, please don't hesitate to contact our Admissions Team.

Additional Information - Notes On Submission Of Materials

- Do not exceed the total run time, maximum word or page counts – additional materials will not be reviewed.
- All films should be in English or subtitled in English.
- Links to files hosted online are not permitted – this prevents materials being altered after submission.
- File names should be clear and descriptive and only include alphanumeric characters (not symbols).
- Do not include your contact details in any documents.
- Documents must be in PDF format. Other file formats will not be considered.
- Keep any text submissions easy to read by using a simple layout and font eg. Helvetica, Aptos or Times New Roman in 12 point. Courier should be used for scripts.
- You are not permitted to submit any work that has been created in part or whole by a generative AI tool such as ChatGPT and claim it as your own. If you are using any work that is not yours it must be referenced – this is essential to ethical creative practice and academic integrity. Failure to reference is also considered plagiarism.
